Reserve Materials will be processed in the order that they are received. To ensure that your materials will be available to your students, bring the materials to the Library as early as possible – a minimum three-day notice is highly recommended!

Please Note:

- It is the policy of the Modesto Junior College Library to obey the copyright law of the United States <http://www.copyright.gov/title17/circ92.pdf>
- Instructors who wish to place a student paper or other unpublished work on reserve must obtain written consent from the author before the work will be posted. Workbooks or other consumable publications generally require copyright permission.
- The library is not responsible for the replacement of personal copies that are lost, stolen, delinquent, or damaged by students, though every effort will be made to get items returned, replaced or paid for.
- The California Public Records Act, Section 6267, states that, “All patron use records of any library which is in whole or in part supported by public funds shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed”.

By initialing this, I have read the above note and acknowledge that all copyrighted works placed on reserve for the above course falls within US Code, Title 17 Fair Use Exception. Initials: __________________
